

Gary Freeman

Gary Freeman is a tax partner with Regier Carr & Monroe, LLP (RCM) who concentrates on individual and corporate taxation, income tax controversy, management consulting for small business and consultation on the acquisition and disposition of businesses. Gary has his B.B.A. from Wichita State University and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the state of Kansas. He is involved with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Kansas Hispanic Educational & Development Foundation.

Along with other individuals, Gary helped organize and fund the beginning of KHEDF. He and others performed many months of work to organize the foundation. In addition to donated time and professional services for the organization, initial direct operating and organizational expenses of KHEDF were paid by RCM and Gary personally when the foundation lacked funds. Gary has served on the KHEDF board and held various officer positions since the founding of KHEDF.
